

The League of Utah Writers

We are a nonprofit organization dedicated to all writers for the encouragement and improvement of writing skills. Members are writers with various interests at all levels of skill and professionalism, and they meet in local chapters around the state to write, discuss their work and share ideas and expertise.

Membership benefits include: A free annual Spring Workshop, reduced fees for annual Fall Roundup costs, a quarterly newsletter (The Lariat), a chapter newsletter, an online Chapter Membership Directory and special pricing for statewide events. Chapter meetings are open to the public and guests and new members are always welcome.
